1956-1973

We dedicate this year's 1974 LaVie in memory of our fellow classmate and friend,

PETER WILSON

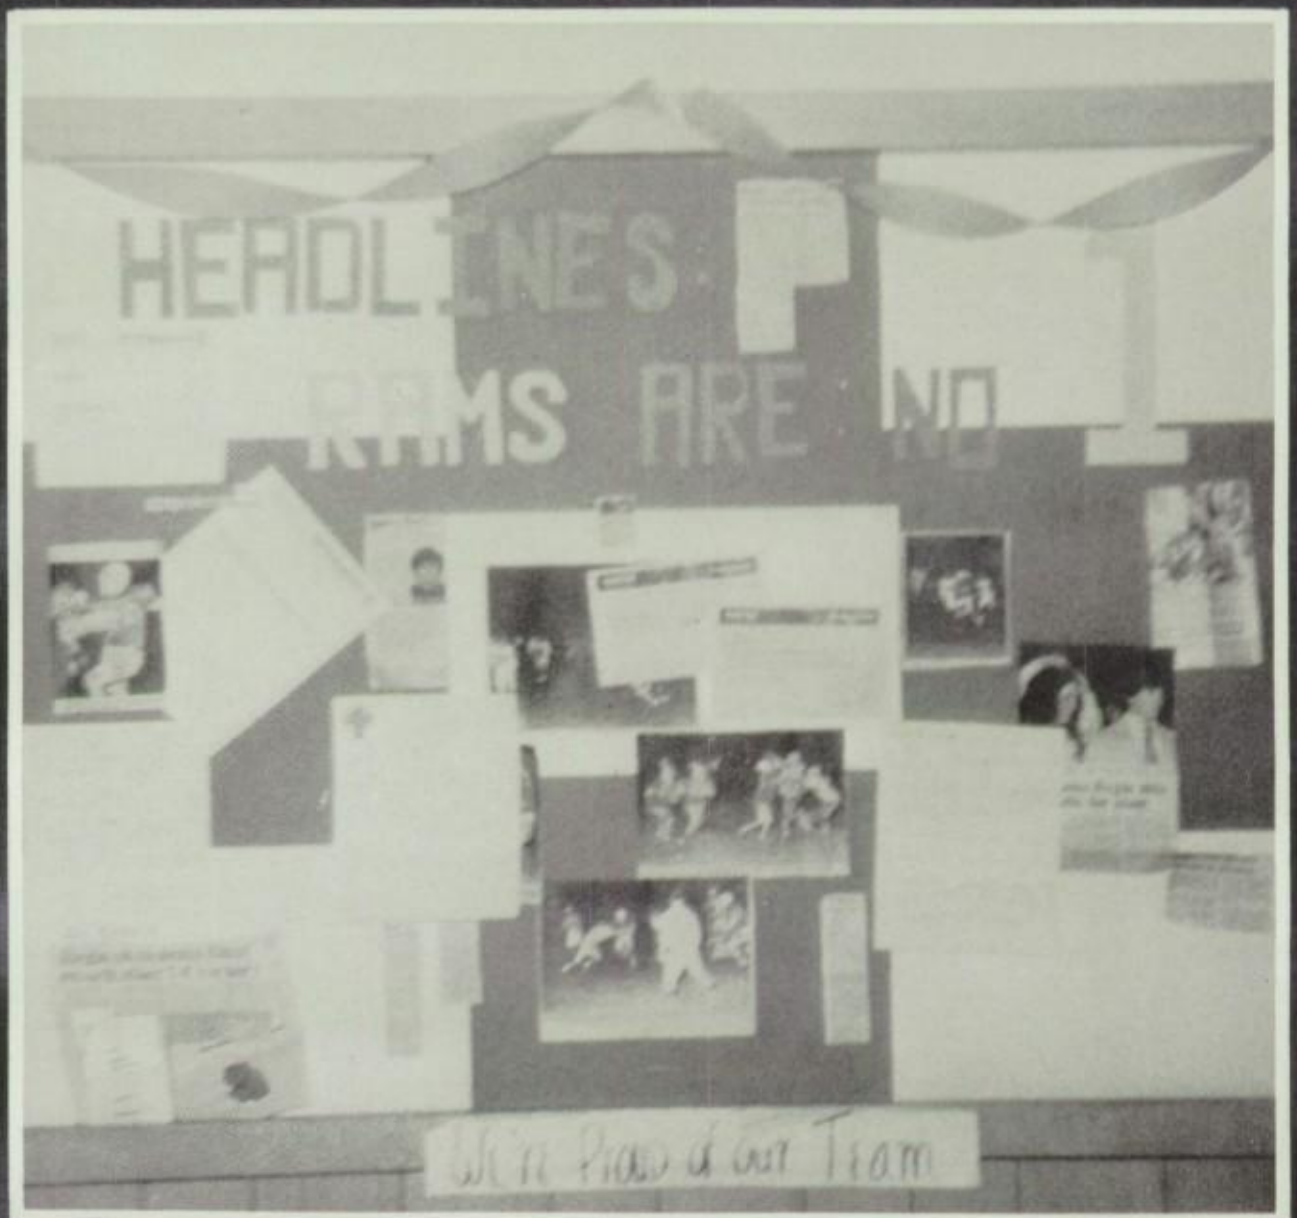

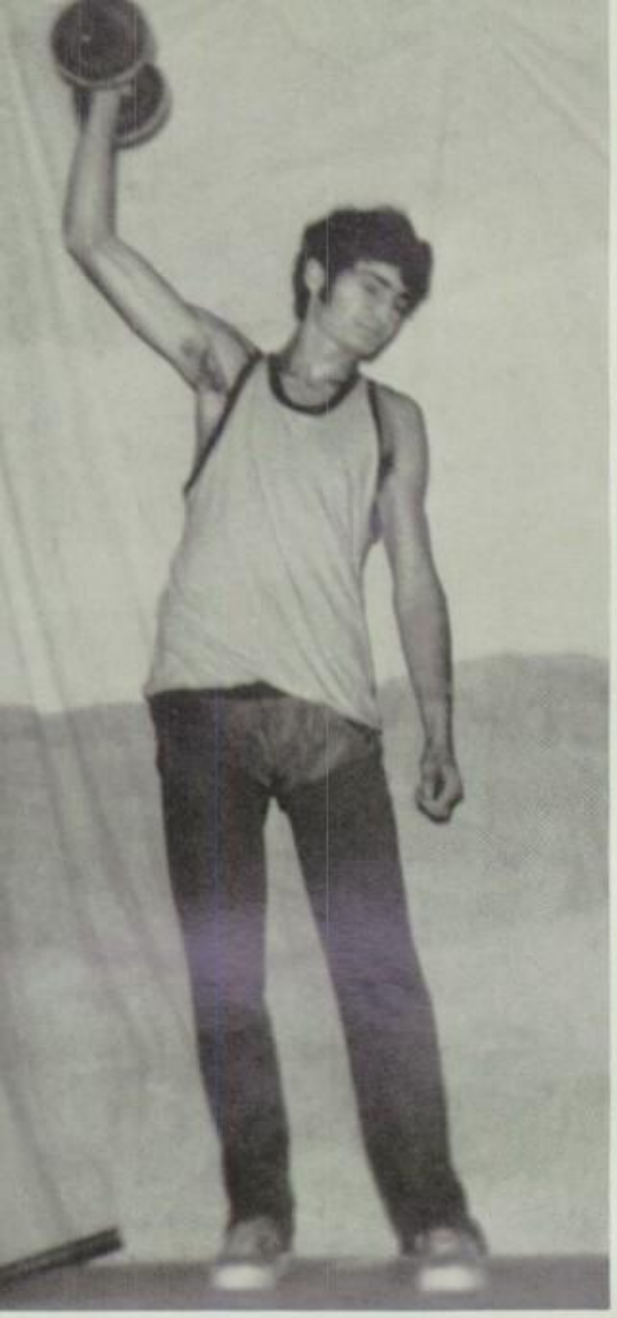

Pete came to Regis in the fall of '71, and in the short two years that he was with us; became well-known and well-liked by all who met him. Pete established himself as a Christian, a competitive athlete, an outstanding student . . .

. . . an inspirational leader, and a faithful friend. His dedication to his family and friends leaves both a deep everlasting impression in our minds, and the memory of him in our hearts.

Today is not yesterday.
We ourselves change.
How then, can our works and thoughts,
if they are always to be the fittest,
continue always the same.

Change, indeed, is painful,
yet ever needful;
and if memory have its force and worth,
so also has hope.

SHARING EXPERIENCES

FACULTY

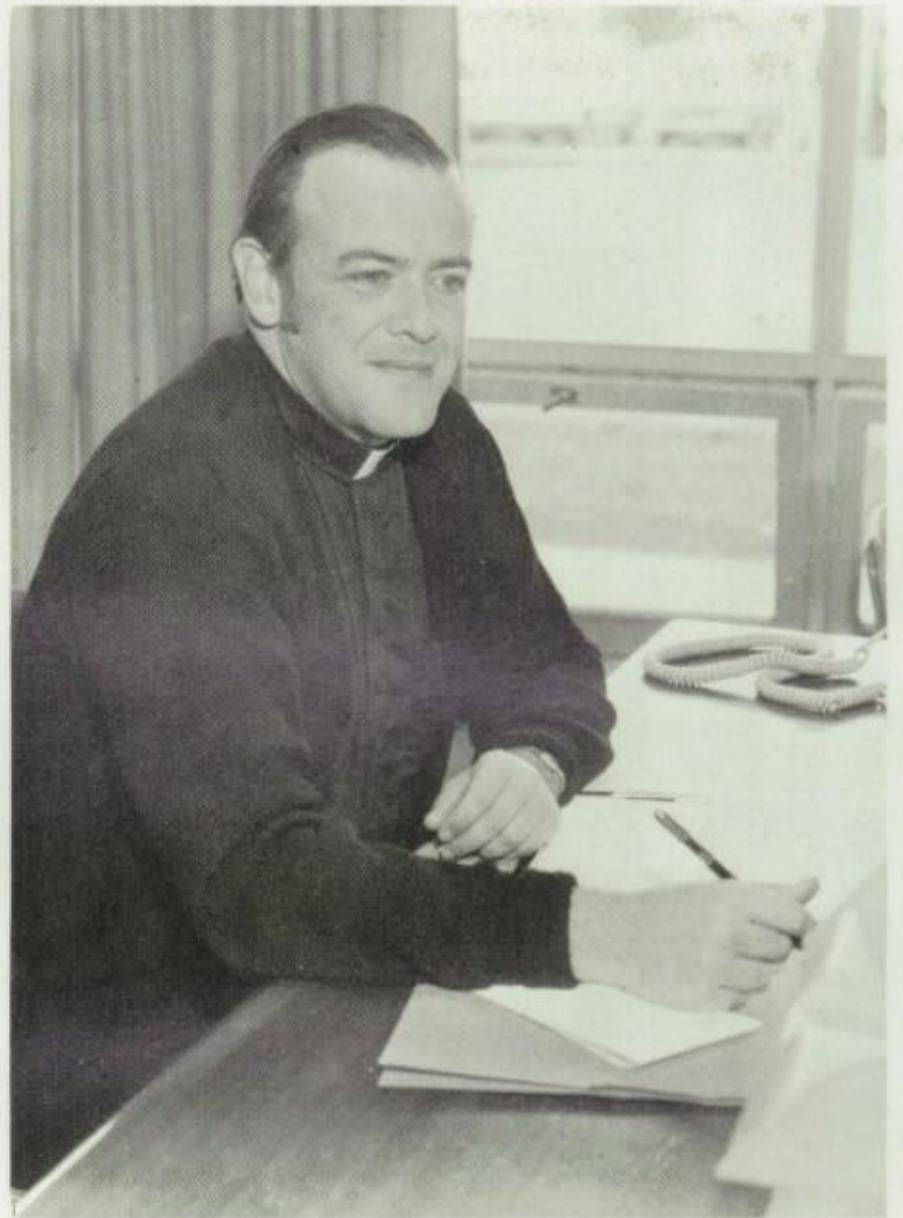

"Jonathan Seagull was born to be an instructor, and his own way of demonstrating love was to give something of the truth that he had seen to a gull who asked only a chance to see truth for himself."

JONATHAN LIVINGSTON SEAGULL

Every faculty member at Regis could sign themselves as Jonathan Livingston Seagull. For it is true that each individual teacher, like the seagull, devotes his time and efforts in guiding the students through their own flight patterns. Each teacher shares his or her knowledge and experiences with the students in order to enrich their lives.

"I have no wish to be a leader. I want only to share what I've found, to show those horizons out ahead for us all."

STAFF

Joining our Regis staff this year was Mrs. Richard Basl. Mr. Joe Spenner and she work as our school custodians. Every afternoon after classes are dismissed Mrs. Basl starts her daily task of keeping our school neat and clean.

Joe Spenner helps maintain the outer appearance of our school. Over and above his custodial duties he helps the students explore the world of science through his many projects.

Mrs. Gertrude Pendleton, the third member of the Regis staff, is the school secretary. She takes care of the books and sees that things are kept in order. These three staff members see that the school is run smoothly and orderly.

GOVERNMENT IN ACTION

STUDENT COUNCIL

In September Student Council held a day-long workshop to schedule events of the school year. Among the events on the calendar are dances, spirit week, a Christmas Mass, Christmas assembly, student body and class representative elections, and Mini-Week. Student Council, with the faculty, chose the seniors as the most spirited class. They also put on the Homecoming Dance and the Christmas assembly.

Student Council cares about our school and students and does something about it. They accomplished many things to make our school better. Fr. McLean is the advisor of Student Council.

THE BIG FOUR IN ACTION

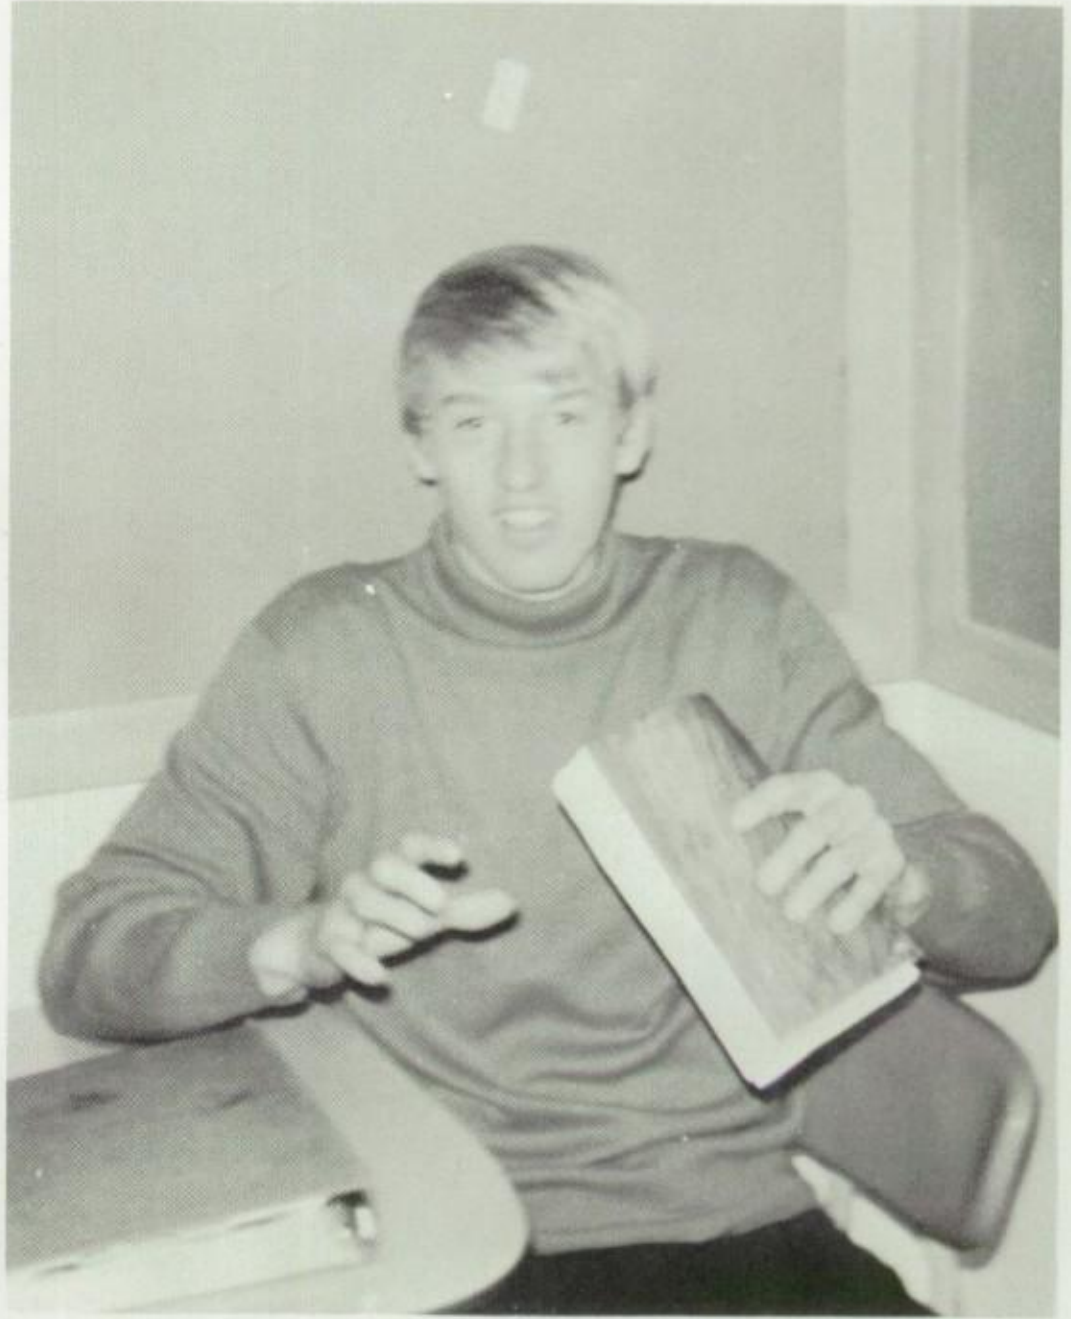

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

Slap the gavel or thump a book, the effect was always the same: President Gerry Goyins called the meetings of the Student Council to order. Constitutionally, Gerry executed all school legislation, although some council members were inclined to call the executions murder.

Vice-president Alan Keudell loyally assisted Gerry. Sue Bielemeier kept notes of the meetings. Denise Basl made it the Big Four by supplying the always much-needed service of making change for dances.

RECORDING THE YEAR

LA VIE

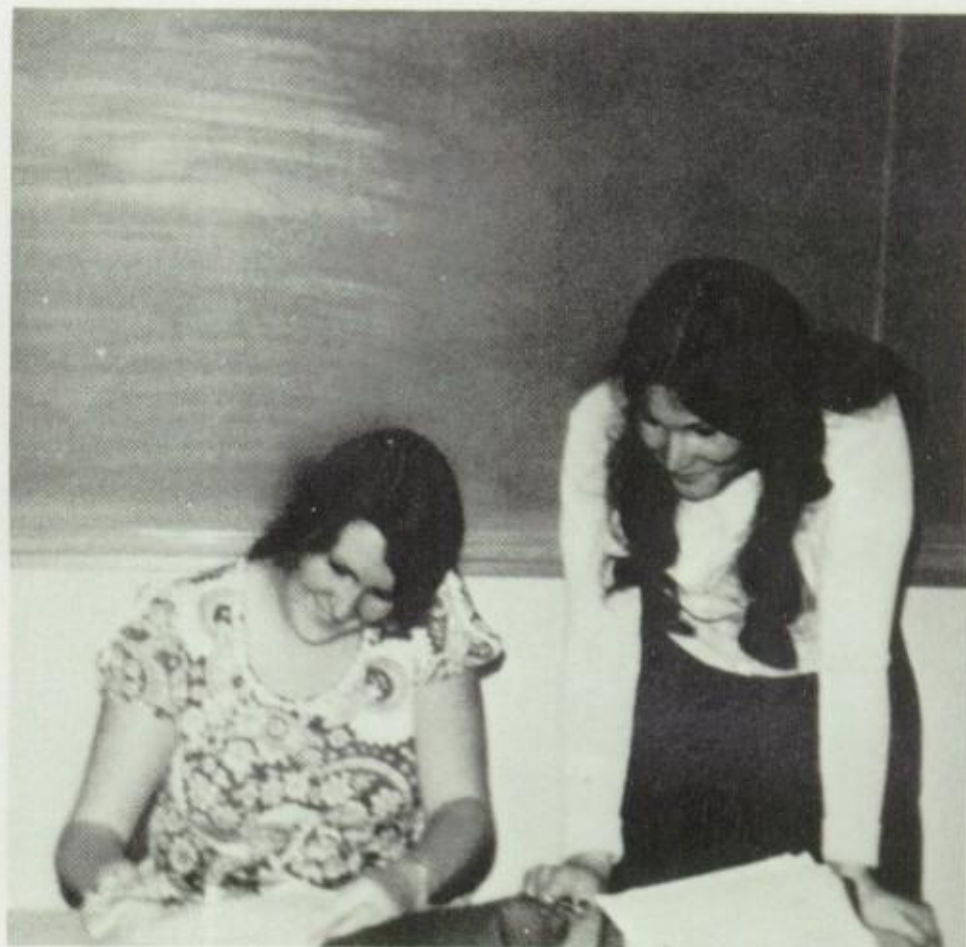

It was murder the last couple days. Page twenty-two was missing, the typist ran out of paper, copy for Homecoming was too short, and copy for Board of Directors was late.

Layout rushed and hussled to find new pictures, lost pictures, and unblurred pictures. Copy sweated to finish copy and captions. The editors rearranged and changed the layouts and copy. Then layout and copy had to correct the mistakes.

Yes, the staff worked hard and long on finishing the yearbook. But the finished product shows that the effort put into it was worth while.

AND NOW FOR THE NEWS

RAMPAGE

The RAMPAGE, the school's newspaper, covers most school activities besides unusual situations. The staff works hard to cover any unexpected events that happen. In an effort to improve the RAMPAGE, the Journalism class took a field trip to see the OREGON STATESMAN and CAPITAL JOURNAL newspapers.

This year's Rampage has some new features that make it stand out from other years. Besides the usual news and sports articles, this year's Rampage has a soap opera. It began with "That Man Chump" in the first three issues and continued with other soap operas. A special poetry column has been added for those who want to express themselves.

HARD WORKING AND ENDURING

LETTERMEN'S CLUB

According to Wayne Wiede, club president, the Regis Lettermen's Club was very active this year. They sponsored the car bash and also ran the snack bar at the varsity games. The profits from these money raising projects went to the existing debt on the universal gym that they had purchased last summer.

Mr. Lushenko, advisor to the club, says that 100% participation by the Lettermen helped make the year very successful.

"For each of them, the most important thing in living was to reach out and touch perfection in that which they most loved to do."

WILLING TO HELP

BLOCK R

Block R Club is a service organization made up of boys who are eager to help with jobs that need to be done. One can see them working at all home games.

They do various jobs such as game supervision, field preparation and help with the snack bar. A Block R member is recognized by his Block R pin which he earns by doing different jobs and getting points for them. After earning a certain amount of points he is awarded with the pin.

SACRISTANS

The Sacristans help prepare the chapel for Mass. Margie M., Kathy V., and Denise B., take turns setting up the needed articles for the Mass. They dust woodwork, bring in and fix flowers for the Blessed Virgin Mary and St. Joseph statues. They lay out some of the priest's vestments which include cincture, or cord used as the belt, and stole or scarf in the proper color. They also prepare the altar for Mass, taking off the dust cover and straightening up the altar.

Margie, Kathy, and Denise do their Christian duty by being Sacristans. This duty helps them prepare for a better life.

HABLAN ESPANOL

SPANISH CLUB

Luanne Kintz, chairman, with Mexico's patron.

Spanish Club was a new club at Regis this year. It was started by a few former Spanish students who were interested in furthering their understanding of the Spanish way of life.

Advisor to this club is Sister Dismaria, a former Spanish teacher, who spent last summer in Spain. She was helpful in organizing this club with her interesting ideas.

The Spanish Club members honored Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12 by putting up a bulletin board and celebrating with a small fiesta. The members also attended a Spanish Mass at Holy Rosary Church in Portland followed by a Spanish Dinner.

LEADERSHIP, SCHOLARSHIP, SERVICE, CHARACTER

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

One of the highest privileges at Regis is to be a member of the National Honor Society. The Induction ceremony of October 11 took in five deserving students. They were: Joe Balloun, Rose Mary Buchheit, Stephen Pileggi, Janice Rickman, and Louis Sieg. The ceremony featured students giving speeches on the Qualifications of a N.H.S. member, and on Leadership, Scholarship, Service, and Character. A second induction ceremony was planned for the spring.

Another project N.H.S. took care of was the Christmas Mass and baskets. Each home room makes their own basket and these are distributed to needy families by the Knights of Columbus.

ON THE MOVE

SKI CLUB

The Ski Club is the challenge of the mountain, it's finding yourself, to quote a popular song, "on top of the world looking down on creation," according to Kevin Hendricks president.

The purpose of the Ski Club is to provide an opportunity for Regis High School students to learn, develop, and enjoy the sport of skiing. The Ski Club tries to make several trips a year to the snow. Usually they go to Hoodoo. Terry Silber-nagel, vice-president of Ski Club says that skiing gives students an opportunity to try something different and exciting.

AWAY THEY GO

MODEL AIRPLANE CLUB

For those who enjoy model airplanes, Model Airplane Club is their place. They have very few official meetings. They often got together after school to make, fly, and chase ½ A-U-Control, powered free flight airplanes and gliders from kits.

ACTIVITIES

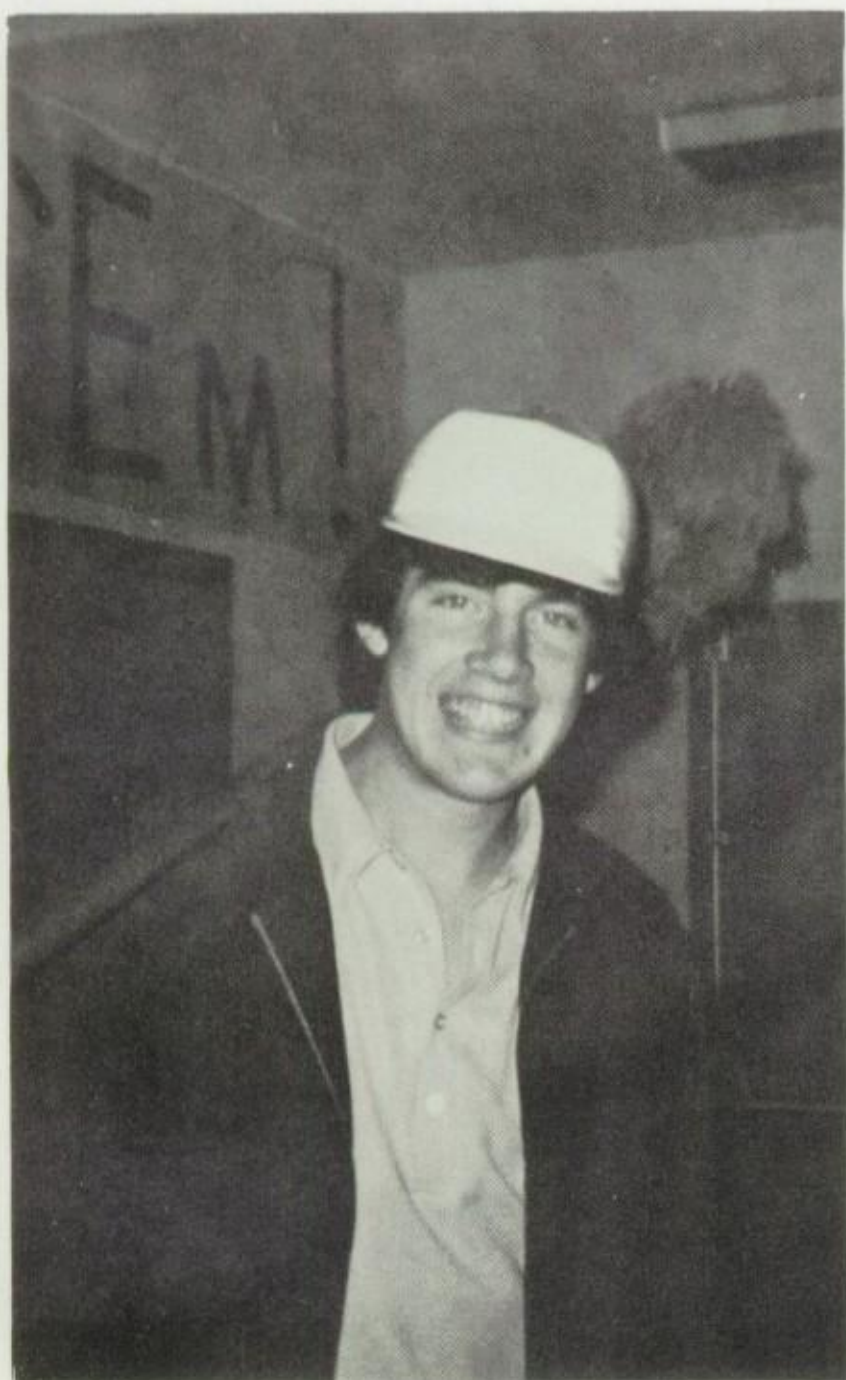

SHOWING THE SPIRIT

ASSEMBLIES

This year's assemblies showed a lot of enthusiasm on the part of the students, as well as the teachers and coaches. A favorite of all was when Coach Lushenko and the team led the student body in spirit-filled yells. Included in these spirited assemblies were humorous skits, tricycle racing and pie-eating contests, and tug-or-war competition. The outcome of the tug-of-war competition was unknown because the rope broke, sending participants flying.

If it is true that there is no better way of judging a school's spirit than by the sound of its assemblies, then Regis is indeed Number One.

BEST EVER

SPIRIT WEEK

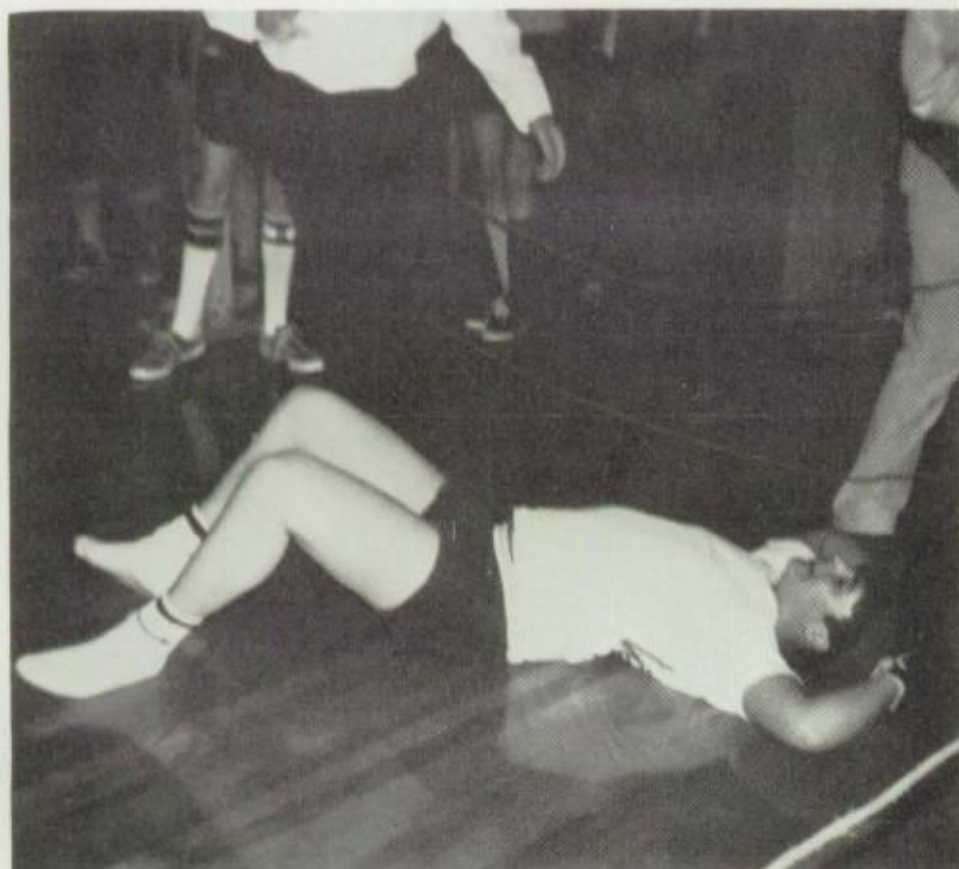

Each day of Spirit Week was filled with laughter and enjoyment. On Wednesday, costume day, many strange and unusual creatures and characters haunted the halls. Students were dressed as witches, ghosts, clowns, and many others.

The second day proved to be just as astonishing. The era of long skirts and baggy pants seemed to have returned. Students dressed in untailored suits and dresses brought back memories of the 30's. That afternoon in order to get into the swing of things, students took turns pounding the remnants of Ron Mack's '57 Ford. This beating showed the outcome of the game ahead. At 8:00 that evening the freshmen's bomb fire got under way. After Coach Art Lushenko's talk, spirits raised high with the flames.

The final day of Spirit Week was green and gold day. Throughout the halls our school colors shone. Students were also slaves to the football players for the day. To end Spirit Week assemblies were put on by each class followed by a serpentine that included every student.

VICTORY CELEBRATION

HOMECOMING

The Homecoming this year was a different experience from any other year.

The princesses were chosen by each class on school spirit and participation. The Freshmen class princess was Joani Lulay. The Sophomores chose Jill Gries. Danell Schumacher was the Junior princess and the Senior princess and Homecoming Queen was Mary Rauch.

One of the new and original ideas introduced for Homecoming by the Seniors was a float. The float's frame was constructed by Kevin Hendricks and was filled in with crepe paper, tissue and napkins. The project took about a week and proved to be quite a successful addition to Homecoming proceedings.

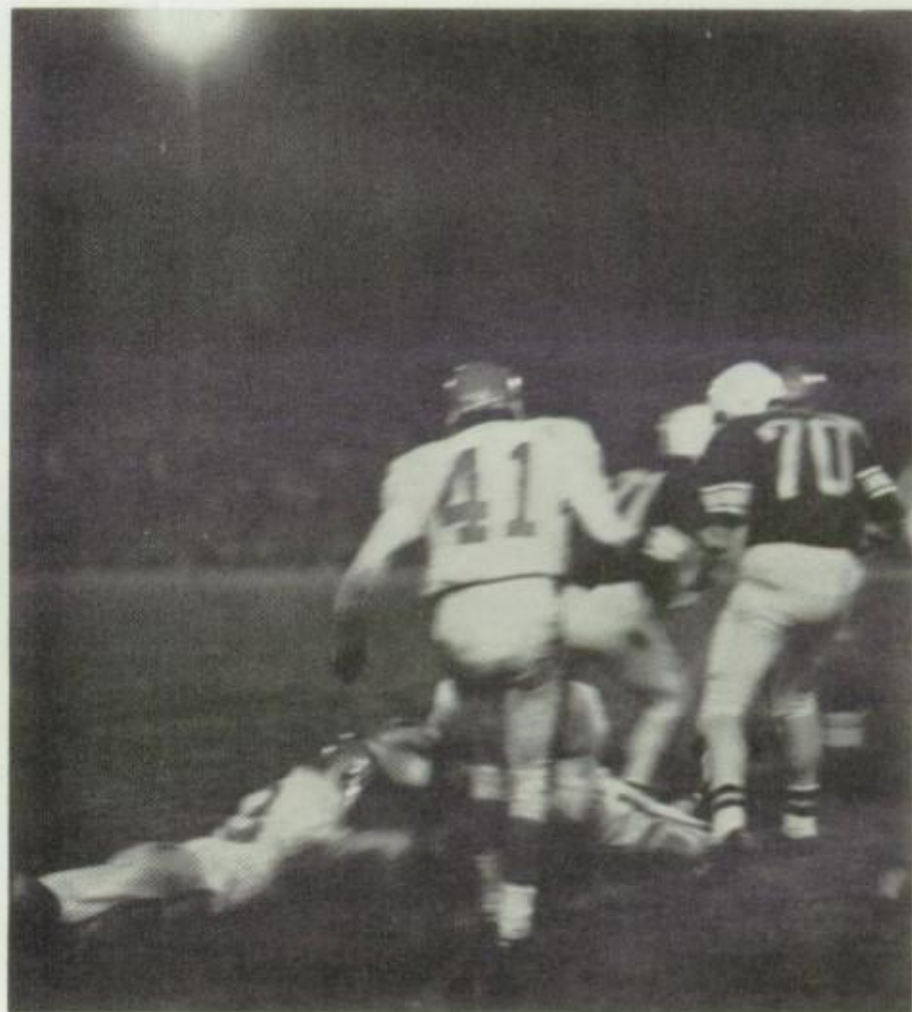

At the Santiam VS Regis game, which the Rams won 27 to 0, it was announced that the Seniors had won spirit week and the spirit stick. The Homecoming Dance immediately followed the game.

JOIN IN

DANCES

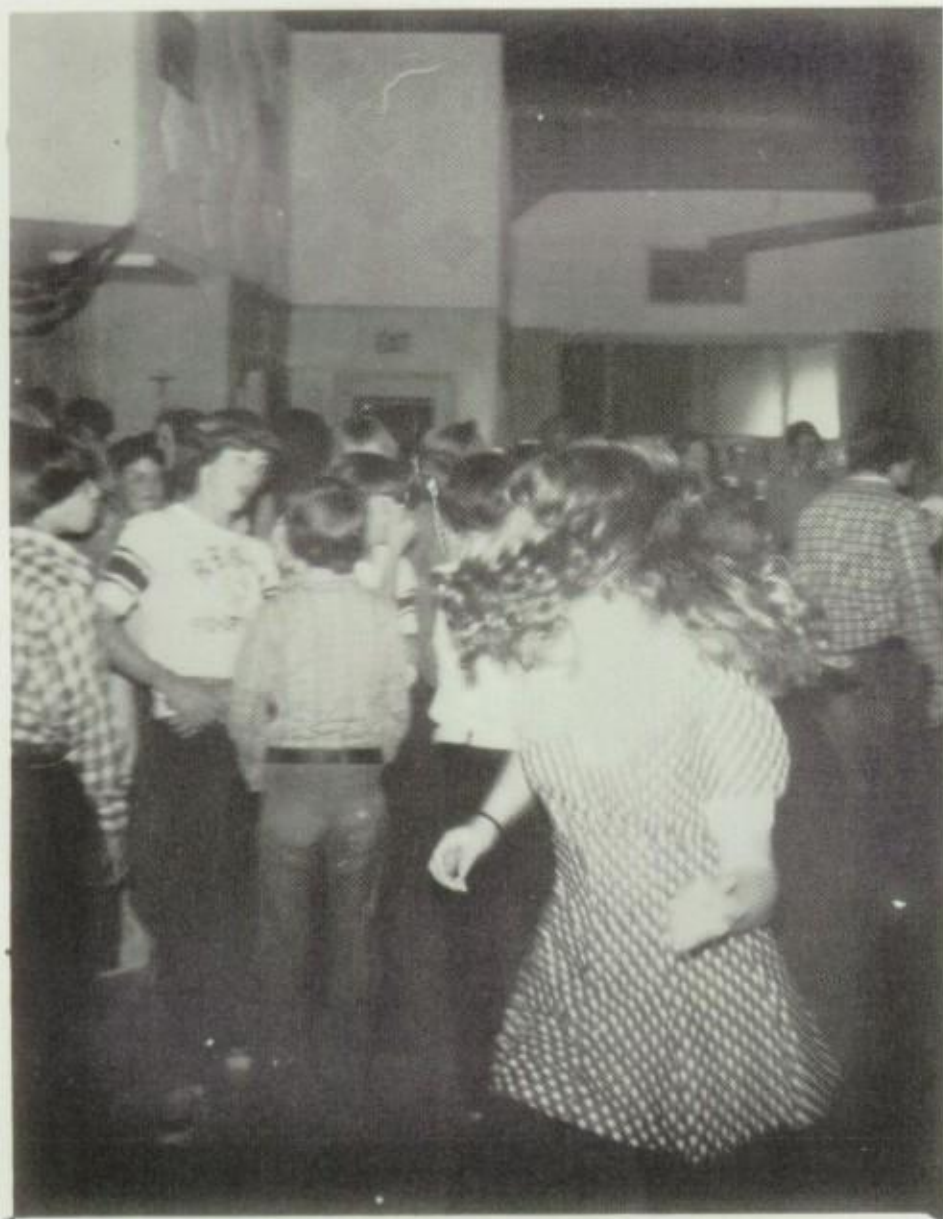

Regis doesn't have many dances, however, the ones they do have are successful. Many various groups, classes, and clubs sponsor the dances. They get different disc-jockeys, records and tapes, and even live bands for entertainment.

The Sophomores welcomed the Freshman with the first dance of the year. The Juniors sponsored a dance with disk-jockey to earn more money to do something special for the Seniors. A Halloween Dance was given by the Yearbook class to earn money for the completion of the La Vie yearbook. Chorus decided to put on a Christmas dance to enhance the Christmas spirit before the lengthened Christmas holiday.

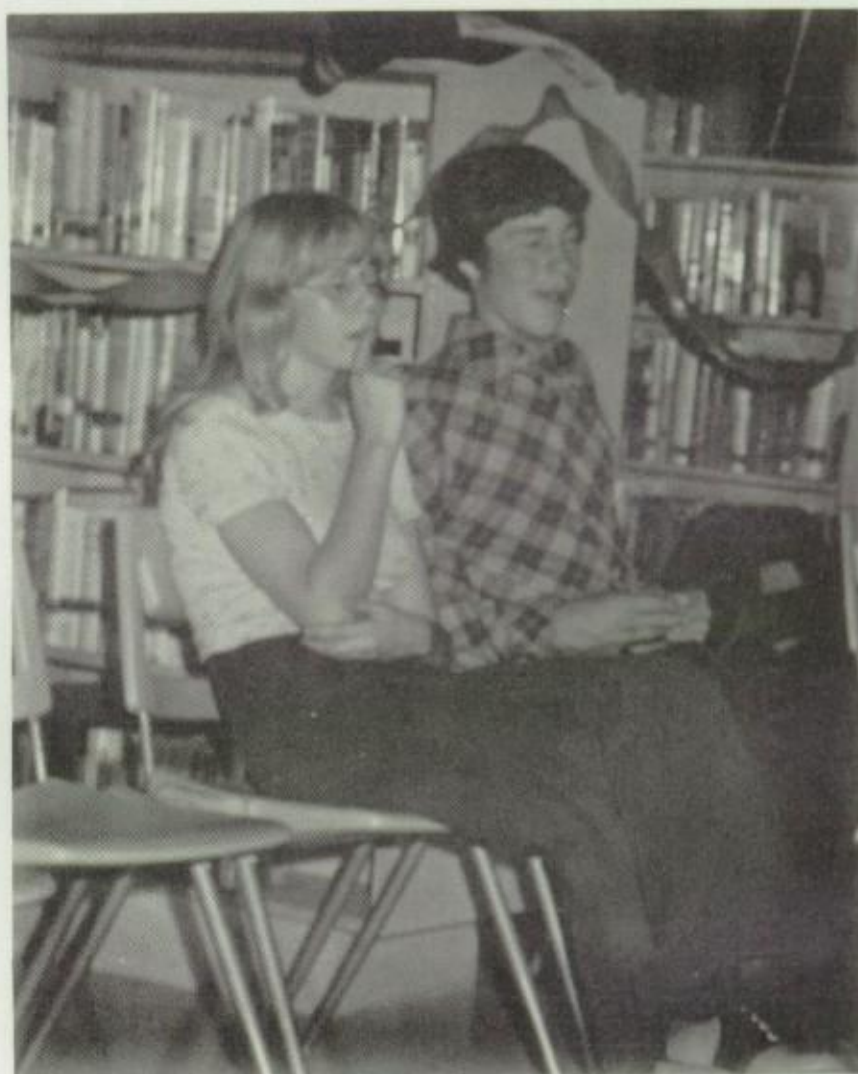

These are just a sample of the dances Regis students have put on. Although some students don't think much of them, dances are really well attended by all.

CHRISTMAS ASSEMBLY

A surprise visit by Santa Claus (none other than Mr. Lushenko) was the highlight of this year's Christmas assembly. He handed out funny gifts to students and teachers who were considered good boys and girls during the past year. Also received by teachers were money gifts.

Cindy Foltz received her favorite play horse, Heidi, while Jim Kintz was presented with a tom-tom drum. Denny Lulay was given a miniature football, to practice with before next year's football season.

CHRISTMAS MASS

The banner proclaims: "Sing and rejoice gladly" -- The theme of our Christmas mass on December 19th.

At Christmas time Regis is glad to thank God in Eucharist and prayer for his gifts -- glad to be able to share with others through the reg room donations of food baskets, -- and glad that winter vacation is almost here.

The National Honor Society organized the Christmas baskets and the texts and special readings for the mass. The readings were read by Gerry G., Pat S., Donn C., Joe B., and Jerry M.

Father Arata with altar boys, Gary G. and Steve Z.

The banner was constructed by Luanne K. and Denise B. of the National Honor Society. The words of the banner were taken from a song that was sung at mass.

A TIME TO SING

CHORUS

The Regis Chorus is still singing strong after many changes this year. First of all the chorus was divided into two groups, the Senior Singers and the Junior Chorus. Their new director, Mrs. Patricia Rossitto proved to be a welcome and needed change, teaching some of the students timing and rhythm for the first time.

They performed for the public in the Christmas Concert, the Santiam Music Festival and the Spring Spring Concert.

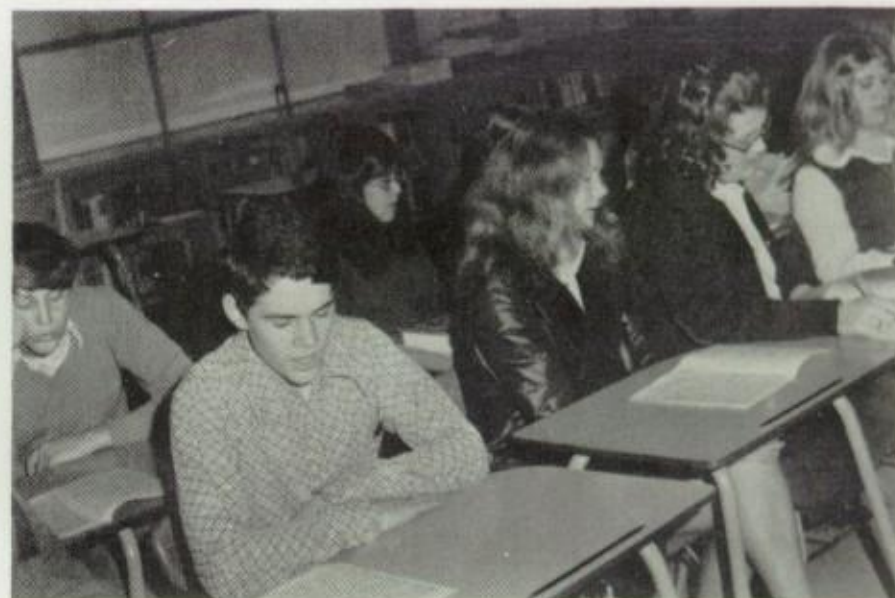

Valerie S. Devotes much of her time as pianist for chorus.

A TIME TO ACT

DRAMA

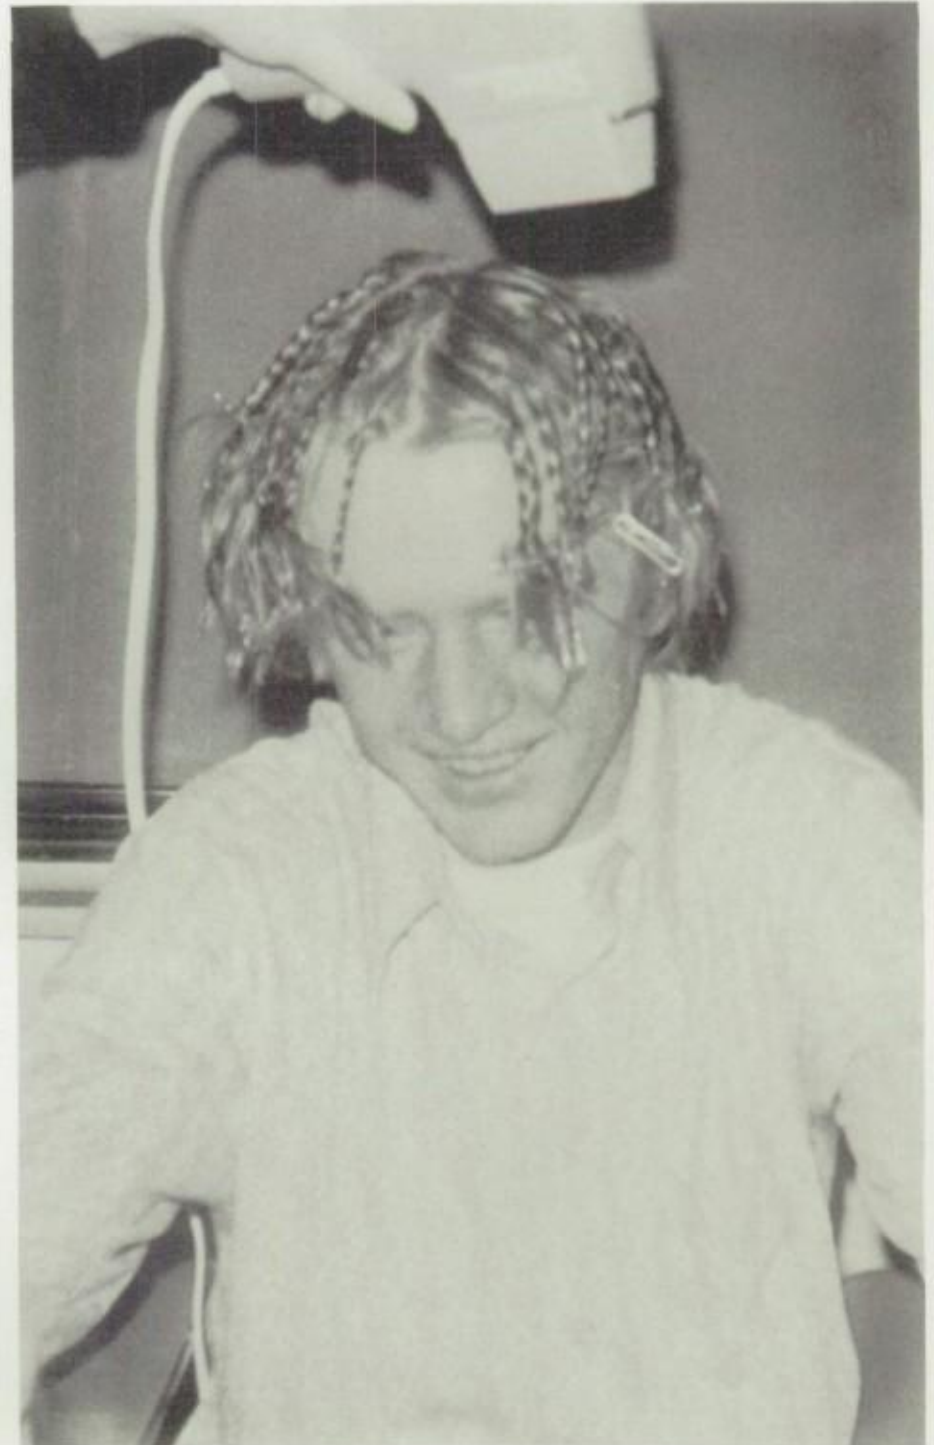

"We're really free to ham-a-lot," said Patti Gilbert in the one act play, presented by the senior drama class. The drama class presented two plays, Hamelot and The Sandbox which were both given to the student body of Regis high. Ms. Gabrio, the director, felt that the talent which was developed by the class was very beneficial towards expression of oneself.

VARSDITY RALLY

The energy crisis this year made it difficult for the cheerleaders and pep club to get to games; however, they always found some way to get there.

The Varsity rally led the pep club and the student body in many cheers and with much enthusiasm. Their spirit and the support of the student body spurred the Rams on to victory.

J.V. RALLY

The J.V. Rally consisted of only two girls. For such a small rally, however, they've shown a lot of spirit. They've put in hard work practicing and cheering for the Regis team. They have proven to be leaders in keeping the students spirited and proud.

Because of this large number they found it at first difficult to get organized; however, they proved they could do it and keep the spirit going strong.

SPORTS

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Winning a state championship is the goal of every high school football team. This year the Rams reached that goal winning the school's first state championship.

Defense proved to be the Rams strong point. Against class "A" schools only 22 points were scored on Regis. The defense was not scored on in 18 consecutive quarters of play and Regis' last four opponents Santiam, Harrisburg, Concordia Lutheran, and Pine Eagle failed to cross the goal line.

Senior John Rickman led the team on interceptions with six while seniors Ron Mack, Jerry Lulay, Kevin Christiansen, and Dave Hance led the defense against the run. Juniors Mark Newkirk, Jerry Mack, Steve Pileggi, and sophomores Ted Highberger and Denny Lulay provided the extra strength to make the toughest defense in the state. The offense gave the needed balance for a state championship. The offense gained nearly 3500 total yards. The Rams scored at a rate of 21 per game.

Junior Q. B. Doug Lulay and sophomore tailback Denny Lulay provided much of the offensive punch with big contributions from fullback Jerry Mack and Bob Wanner, flanker Jim Gries and split end Gerry Goyins. Regis had the finest offensive line in the state, led by senior tackles Kevin Christiansen, Donn Christiansen, Pete Wilson; and Junior center Steve Pileggi. Junior tight end Steve Keudell proved to be an excellent blocker and receiver.

Special mention goes to sophomore Bob Wanner's place kicking. Bob was consistent on his extra point tries and broke a state record by kicking two field goals against Pine Eagle in the championship game. Junior Roger Roberts provided the good hands to set down the ball on PAT's and field goal attempts.

LEAGUE CO-CHAMPS

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Ram Varsity enjoyed a successful season this year going 19 and 3 for the season and 12 and 3 in league. The success of the season was due to increased depth of the team. Coach Edwards said, "If the starting five were ranked No. 1 in the state, the second string is No. 2." Regis had twelve members who could play under any conditions and win.

This was evident in the statistics. The Rams scored an average of 59.8 points per game shooting .468 from the field and .631 from the foul line. Regis also played tough defense letting the opponents score only 49.4 points per game. Further Ram statistics were very impressive: averaging 35 rebounds per game; making the other team turnover the ball 11 times per game; and having at least 16 assists per game.

TRI-RIVER CHAMPIONS

J.V. BASKETBALL

The Ram Junior Varsity turned in the best record ever recorded at Regis this year. It was a very impressive, 22 wins and 0 losses. The rams had eight returning J.V. veterans, who were the backbone of the team, a new coach and six sophomore players. This combination of players and coach proved successful in racking up 1426 total points for the year, and average of 64.8 points per game, while allowing only 837 total points for a per game average of 38.0. With their league record 15 and 0 the Rams took their conference for the second year in a row, doing it last year with an 11 and 1 record. The highest score in a game for the Rams was against Scio, winning 87-38. The lowest score for an opponent was against Sacred Heart, winning 72-14. This was the first undefeated season for a Regis High Basketball team.

SHORT BUT DETERMINED

FROSH BASKETBALL

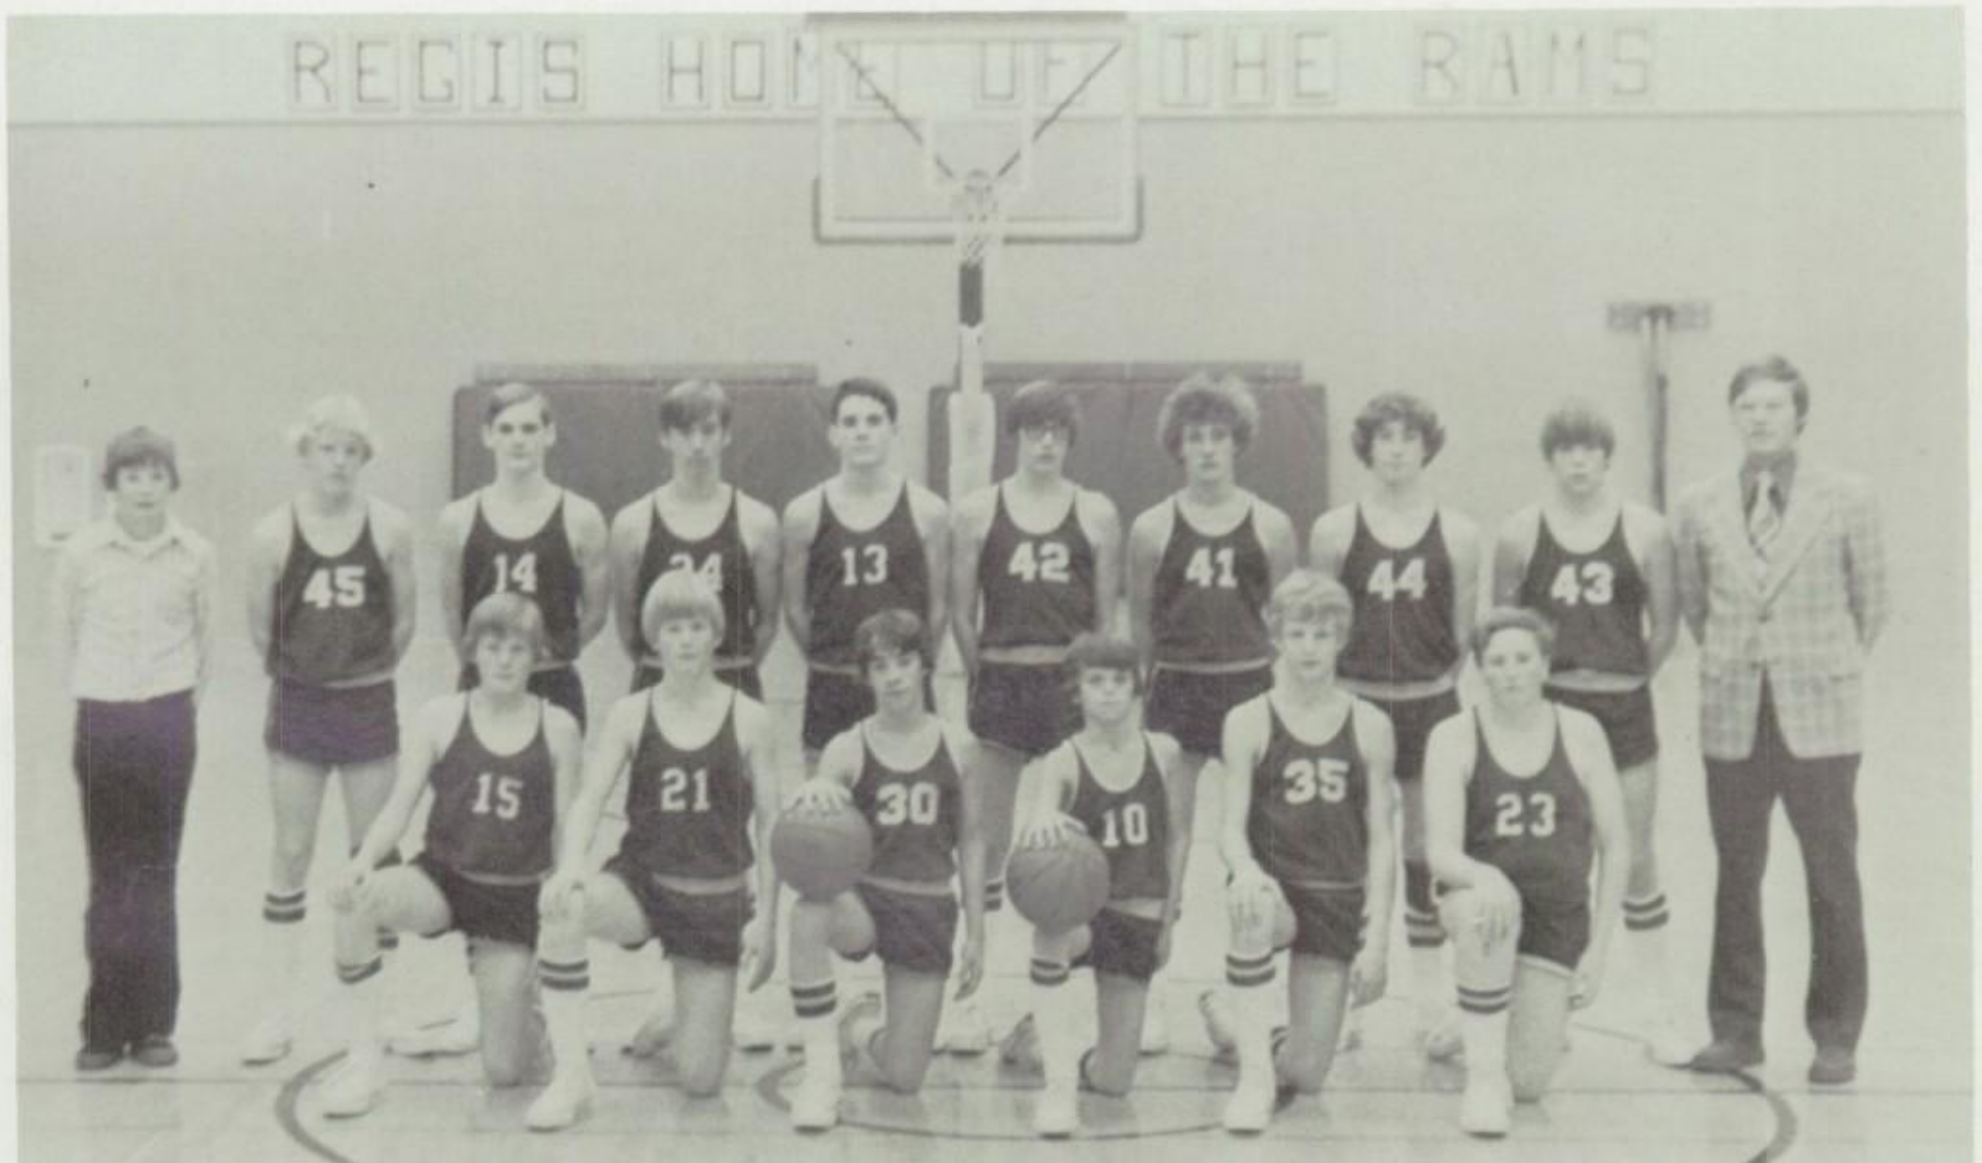

Ref, you've got Legg's! (Randy S., Gene M.)

The Freshmen Basketball team experienced a year with some good wins and some close loses. On the whole it was a year in which the players and coach gained a lot of experience. The frosh lacked height but more than made up for it in hustle. The coach, Mr. George, was quoted as saying, "We were short on height but long on determination."

The season went rather rough at the beginning but after dropping the first three games the Rams started coming back. But the problem of height began to haunt the team and it was a battle for every win.

One of the main goals, as outlined by Mr. George in the beginning of the season, was to let all the players get in as much playing time and gain as much experience as possible. This goal was accomplished and the frosh ended their season with three straight wins.

FAST BUT FEMININE

GIRLS SPORTS

The girls' sports program took a rest this year and did not take part in Tri-River League competition in either volleyball or basketball. Rather, intramural competition was organized. In this way more girls could participate, especially those who otherwise might have been overlooked because of a lesser degree of skill and experience.

In volleyball, there were four teams: the Peppermint Patties, Petunia Punks, Rebels, and Magicians. One round of matches was played with each of the teams winning at least one match.

Only 14 girls were interested in playing basketball so intramural teams were not set up. The highlight of the season was an exciting tie game with the Frosh boys.

CLASSES

NEW BUT SPIRITED

FRESHMEN

This year the freshmen have contributed a great deal to the spirit of Regis High. Almost all the freshmen participated in all activities: games, dances, assemblies.

They contributed much to Spirit Week by sponsoring a bonfire get together. Freshmen also shared in everyday Spirit Week functions. Homecoming Princess for the freshmen in 1973 was Joani Lulay with escort Ricky Lulay.

Freshmen have just started high school. It's a new experience for them and they've been trying hard.

Off to lunch are freshmen Kathy K., Janet D., Lillian V., Patty J., Katie G., Terry G.

A LONG WAY TO GO

SOPHOMORES

Sophomores have had a year to become accustomed to the school and how it functions. They have more confidence and are more sure of their actions. So this year we have seen more of the sophomores in school activities.

The sophomores realize the loneliness of being a freshman, so they welcomed them with the first dance in their honor.

For homecoming sophomores chose princess Jill Gries with escort, Gary Gries. Sophomores aren't quite halfway yet, and still have a long way to go.

READY TO CARRY ON

JUNIORS

Spirit, ideas, enthusiasm, and eagerness characterize the Junior class. The three years of development since their freshmen year have brought a desire to create a memorable year for the Seniors and to help guide the underclassmen to a smooth and profitable future.

This year the Juniors showed spirit by helping out at the Fall Frolic. They also participated in everyday events of Spirit Week. Danell Schumacher represented the Junior class as Homecoming Princess for the year 1973.

GOING ON TO A NEW WORLD

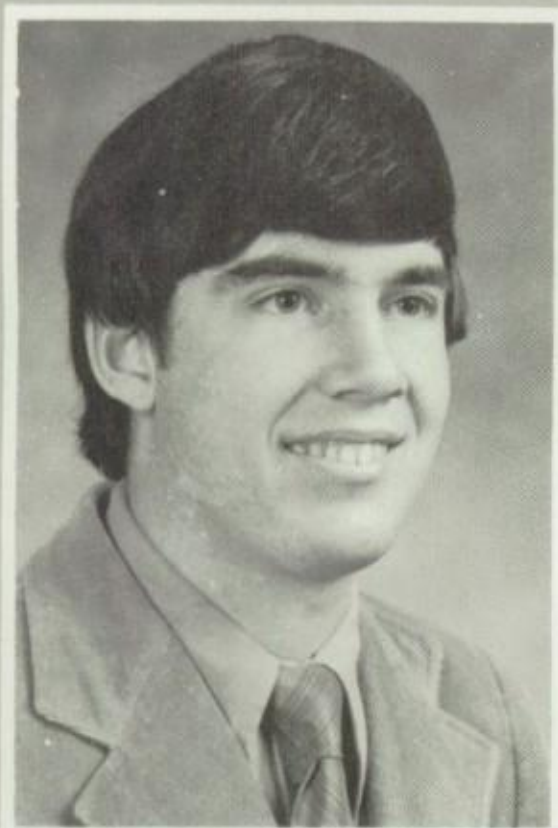

SENIORS

"Don't believe what your eyes are telling you. All they show is limitation. Look with your understanding, find out what you already know, and you'll see the way to fly."

Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Throughout their four years the Seniors have learned to meet and cope with problems they will face in the future. Regis has provided them with a religious background to give them strength to be successful throughout life.

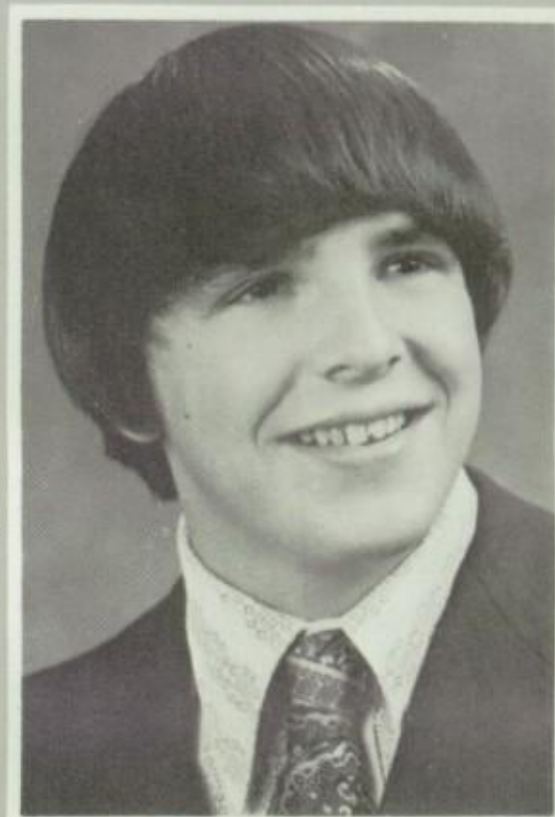

Several events will always be remembered by the Seniors. They were always together supporting the Rams. Proof of this is their winning the spirit stick in their Sophomore and Senior years. In their Senior year they attended a retreat which brought out the importance of each individual.
